

Disposable medical protective masks

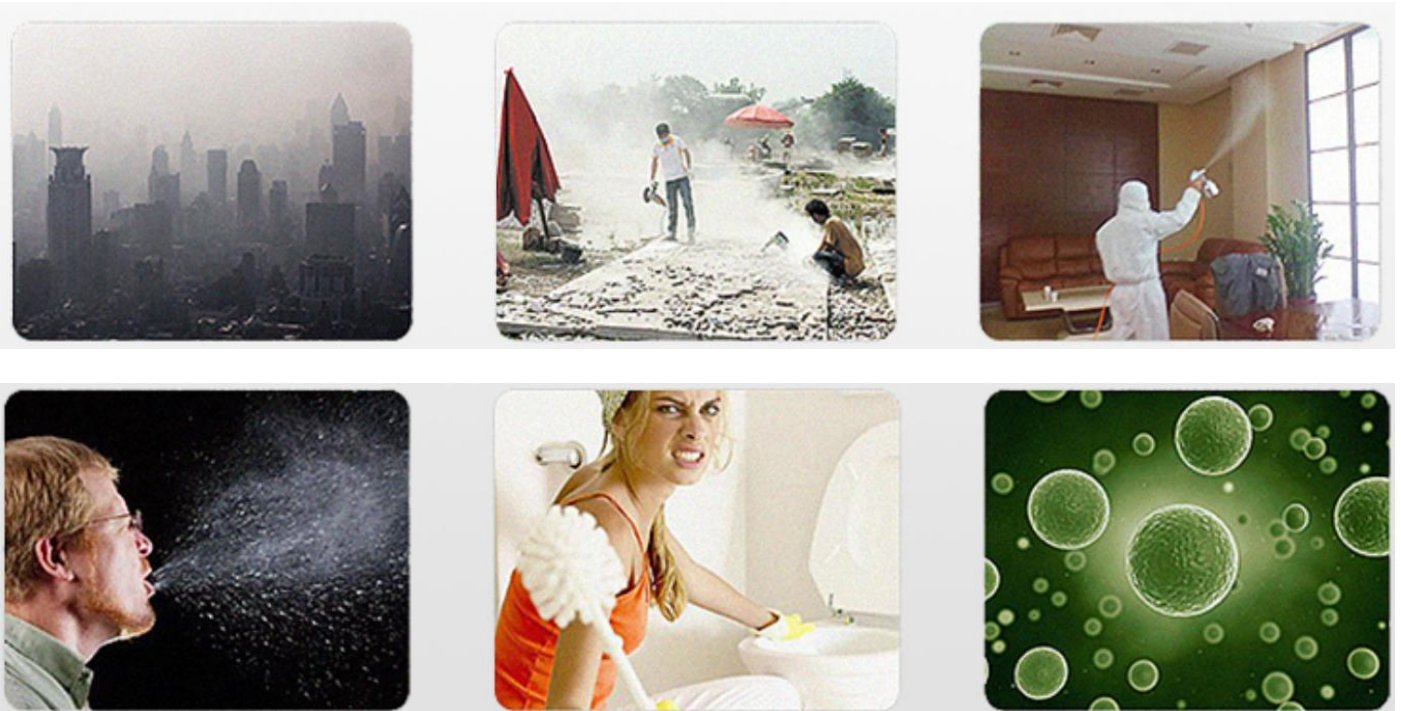

Introduction:

Disposable medical protective masks are made of two layers of fiber non-woven fabrics professionally used in medical and health care. An additional layer is used to filter and anti-bacteria up to 99%. The filter-dissolved spray cloth is welded by ultrasonic welding. Plastic strips, without any metal, with steam permeable, comfortable. Filter effect B.F.E up to 99%.

Product Usage:

Disposable medical protective masks can protect your normal life and work in the environment of smog, dust, particles, droplets, bacteria, viruses, odors.

Product advantages and features:

- Mesh structure, high-quality spot-welding protection filter layer.
- The shape of nose bridge can be shaped to adjust fitness with the face and improve protective effect.
- High-elastic elastic band design, fits snugly and comfortably.
- Folding design, breathing in a large space is more comfortable.

Meet ISO quality system certification. Export certification, US FDA, EU CE certification

Specifications (Quotation is one-day validity)

Item	Disposable face masks
Size	175x95mm
Layer	3 ply
Carbon tetrachloride adsorption rate	> 70%
Benzene adsorption rate	≥15%
Retarding force	80%
Area weight	35 ~ 45g / m2
Materials	Non-woven fabric, filter paper, leaded carbon cloth
Quantity	20pcs/bag
Packaging	1600pcs/carton
Packing size	43*42*24cm-
Remarks:
1. TT. 50% down payment, 50% should be paid before loading.
2. 3 days after receiving your deposit.

Wearing methods:

